From the South

Option 1 (green then red): Take the Swansea exit off the Freeway. Approaching the city at Merewether, the Highway becomes City Road and then Gordon Avenue. At the bottom of the hill continue through the traffic lights and down Stewart Avenue through one set of lights (Parkway Avenue) and turn right at the next set into King Street. After crossing through the traffic lights at Darby Street, pass Christ Church Cathedral and turn right into Newcomen Street.

Option 2 (pink then red): Continue down the Freeway, take the Newcastle exit and follow the 'Newcastle' signs which will bring you into the city on King Street. After crossing through the traffic lights at Darby Street, pass Christ Church Cathedral and turn right into Newcomen Street.

From the West and North

From Port Stephens
